The Musical Potpourri 2013 by SMJK Heng Ee students, on the evening of yesterday. Sunday 23 June 2013. Share this news with your friends and log in yourself. It promises to be a great show. The GCC Team was invited to preview the rehearsal of this performance on Tuesday night while in Penang. It is so impressive; some 600 performers, 400 volunteers and staff to support; the programs are all entirely curated, produced and performed by students. Invite your children to watch, get them inspired. The performance is scheduled to start at 7:00 pm on Sunday, 23 June 2013. Catch them live

Heng Ee High School's school concert, an event organised by the school's Parent-Teacher Association, is certainly in a class of its own. The concert showcases splendid performances by members of the school's performing arts bodies, namely the School Choir, the Chinese Orchestra, the Wind Orchestra, the Harmonica Band, the Cultural Dance Troupe, the Drama Club and the Wushu-Taichi Club.

The school concert, in fact, paves a pathway for students to build up their confidence in meeting the demands of tight performance schedules and in displaying top-notch performance skills before an audience. It also showcases a potpourri of students' talents in singing, dancing, playing musical instruments and demonstrating Wushu performance routines.
