Province of N.S. Offering Up To $150,000

For Information On Sullivan Siblings

Lansdowne Station, Nova Scotia, 19.06.2025, 19:17 Time

USPA NEWS - The Province of Nova Scotia is offering a reward of up to $150,000 for information about the disappearance of siblings Lilly and Jack Sullivan.

Becky Druhan, Attorney General and Minister of Justice said,

"The disappearance of Jack and Lilly Sullivan is felt across the province and beyond, and my heart goes out to the family, the community and everyone who has been working to find these children since day one. Police and investigators are working tirelessly to find answers, and I urge anyone with information to please share this with the RCMP as soon as possible."

The RCMP launched a missing persons investigation on May 2nd, after family members were unable to locate Lilly, 6, and Jack, 4, within their home or on the property in Lansdowne Station, Pictou County. According to family members, Lilly was last seen inside the home, and Jack was heard on the morning of May 2nd. The investigation has verified that both Lilly and Jack were with family members on the afternoon of May 1st.

Lilly Sullivan is described as being four feet tall and weighing 60 pounds, with light brown hair and hazel eyes. At the time of her disappearance, Lilly was believed to be wearing a pink Barbie top, pink rubber boots with rainbow print, and carrying a cream-coloured backpack with strawberry print. Jack Sullivan is described as being three feet six inches tall and weighing 40 pounds, with dark blonde hair and hazel eyes. At the time of his disappearance, Jack was believed to be wearing a pull-up diaper, black Under Armour jogging pants, and blue rubber boots with dinosaur print.

Anyone with information should call the Rewards for Major Unsolved Crimes Program at 1-888-710-9090. People who come forward with information must provide their name and contact information and may be called to testify in court. All calls will be recorded. People who prefer to remain anonymous can call Crime Stoppers of Nova Scotia at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).
