FRENCH PRESIDENT LAUNCHES CALL FOR MERCY FROM INDONESIA NOT TO EXECUTE ATLAOUI

CONDEMNED FRENCH IS SENTENCED TO DEATH

Paris, Washington DC, 24.04.2015, 01:27 Time

USPA NEWS - At the press conference following the visit of Petro Poroshenko, France, April 22, President of Ukraine, at the Elysee Palace.

French President François Hollande appealed to mercy from Indonesia for the condemned man sake, Serge Atlaoui, whose execution was issued by the Indonesian Supreme Court.

PRESIDENT FRANCOIS HOLLANDE RESPONDS TO QUESTION ABOUT ATLAOUI AT PRESS CONFERENCE : "I say to our Ukrainian friends who are not necessarily aware when I speak of what happened, and the subject was raised by the press, the fate of one of our compatriots who is in Indonesia and who might be executed, as his already condemnation has been issued for death penalty".-----

"About Serge Atlaoui, let me make the transition, I stood there already several weeks with the Indonesian President, saying that France took part in a great movement that is the general abolition of the death penalty. We also have with Foreign Minister initiated all the steps. Not just for there to be used, but that may lead to grace that can be granted and that the sentence will not be executed . Even today, I'm launching an appeal for there is no such execution, which would be damaging to Indonesia, damaging to the relationships we have with Indonesia, damaging to the spirit which must be ours. Justice must remain to justice, but the death penalty should not be executed in any country of the world. " (Source www.elysee.fr)

-----DILPOMACY ACTIVE BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES TO SAVE ATLAOUI'S LIFE-----

The Foreign Minister Laurent Fabius has meanwhile met with the Ambassador of Indonesia in Paris. Laurent Fabius said it "continues to hope for a gesture of clemency" and that "We are extremely concerned by the decision and the threat that if it were implemented, would obviously have consequences for relations between Indonesia and the France ".-----

Today, France has a special place and recognized in the major states involved in the fight against the death penalty.

Laurent Fabius, very attached to the symbolism of the abolition of the death penalty, has decided to extend this fight by mobilizing French diplomacy around the world to campaign for the abolition of the death penalty.-----

The call of the French President Hollande and the diplomatic efforts of Laurent Fabius, are hoping they will be heard and that the Indonesian justice shall express a clemency for Serge Atlaoui so that this country, looks like a paradise, is not a hell of an execution of death penalty. BACKGROUND AND CONTEXT OF CONVICTION OF SERGE ATLAOUI-----

"The French condemned man, Serge Atlaoui, proclaiming his innocence from the beginning, said, "They want to kill me, we will fight, we will continue." Source M6 TV. "Serge Atlaoui was arrested in 2005 in a clandestine laboratory for the production of ecstasy. The Indonesian Supreme Court sentenced to death in 2007. Serge Atlaoui has always maintained his innocence.

April 1, 2015, at the preliminary hearing that examined the request for review of his trial - the ultimate recourse - the Court of Tangerang gave a favorable opinion to the Supreme Court, while accepting the new evidence presented by the defence. On April 21, the Supreme Court refused to review the case of Serge Atlaoui, arguing that there was no new evidence."

"The name of Serge Atlaoui is cited in a list of death row whose performances are planned soon."-----

"If Serge Atlaoui is executed, he would be the first French executed by death penalty for 38 years."
